

Victorian Popular Fictions: Check List for Reviewers

Reviewer:

Title of Article:

Date:

	Y	N
Does the article fit the scope of Victorian Popular Fictions? [Click here to add details]
Would the article be of interest to the readership of the journal? [Click here to add details]
Is the submission original? If so, how does the article help to expand or further research in this subject area in a significant manner? [Click here to add details]
Is the text organized with thoroughness and clarity? Does it have a clear thesis? Is it written in good academic English? [Click here to add details]
Is the methodology presented in the manuscript and any analysis provided both accurate and properly conducted? [Click here to add details]
Does the article show an awareness of, and refer to, relevant and up-to-date critical sources? [Click here to add details]
Are all relevant citations and references supplied by the author? [Click here to add details]
Does the academic presentation and referencing meet professional standards? [Click here to add details]
Please now make a recommendation by selecting one of the following options: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Accept – if the paper is suitable for publication in its current form. • Minor revision – if the paper will be ready for publication after minor revisions. Please summarise the revisions you suggest the author should make. • Major revision – if the paper would benefit from substantial changes. Please summarise the revisions you suggest the author should make. • Reject – if the paper is not suitable for publication with this journal or if the revisions that would need to be undertaken are too fundamental for the submission to continue being considered in its current form.

Please email your reviewer's report to Mariaconcetta Costantini and Andrew King at VPFJournal@gmail.com